Course Summary

Course Description	This course will teach the students the different sections of the speaking TOEIC examination. It will spend the first half of each class looking at different mechanics of producing speech including individual letters, syllables, words, chunks, and sentences. The second part of the class will look at the different parts of the Speaking TOEIC. The things that will be looked at include format of each section of the test, the grading criteria, and hints for each section, classroom practice, methods of self-monitoring, vocabulary building, and test taking grammar. Through this class students should be able to improve their speaking as well as their test taking skills with the speaking TOEIC.
