Course Summary

Course Description	This course will raise issues affecting today's world, and train students to approach the complex issues from different perspectives. A key aspect is gaining deep understanding of each topic to interpret and draw inferences, solve problems, make judgement and engage in creative or critical thinking. For this, students will be encouraged to search for articles and texts through newspapers and the Internet. They will discuss what they learned from the research and then give integrated explanations or present objective and persuasive evidences supporting their opinion.
